Hey Frank,

I was checking out both Warrington sites today to see if anyone posted anything. But there was nothing so was grateful to get your email when I got home remembering 40 years ago. I'm an engineering project lead at Hanscom AFB and we had our staff meeting today. We end the meeting going around the room and see if anyone has anything to add. After I mentioned updates on several "fires" that I'm managing, I closed w/ telling all that know me, that I wanted to acknowledge that I've had 40 awesome years of being thankful for still being here on this great planet we have and not, as you stated, a memory on the WALL. My eternal thanks to all our crewmates that kept us afloat that day and that week. May everyday be a blue sky day for you, one and all, as they have been for me the past 40 years. And may you all "Keep on Rockin' in the Free World" (w/ kudos to Neil Young for that song!) as I still am up here in Massachusetts.

Was on watch up in Combat on the aft air search radar scope trying to decipher the IFF codes of our sister ships with Bruce Minkler, another Massachusetts guy trying to help me.

Here's to those memories from a galaxy far far away....many years ago!!

A toast to you all on this fine night in 2014.
